

CERLIS - Centro di Ricerca sui Linguaggi Specialistici

Martedì 22 giugno 2010 presso l'Università di Bergamo (aula 3 di Piazza Rosate 2, Bergamo), in collaborazione con l'AIDEL (Associazione Italiana di Diritto e Letteratura) si terrà un convegno sul seguente tema:

Legal Discourse in Context:

Insights for Analysis

Il programma del convegno è il seguente:

10.00: Marina Dossena: Official Welcome

10.10 Maurizio Gotti: Opening remarks

10.30 Vijay K. Bhatia: International commercial arbitration practices: a discourse analytical study: Where are we going?

11.00 Christopher N. Candlin: Exploring witness-examination in arbitration: what discourse world, what participant framework?

11.30 Paola Evangelisti: Key issues in the analysis of sports arbitration discourse

11.50 Giuliana Garzone, Chiara Degano: Argumentation in arbitral awards

12.10 Paola Catenaccio: The discourses of arbitration and mediation: a comparative analysis

12.30 Discussion

Lunch break

14.30 Alessandra Fazio: Variation in the juridical language of sports arbitration

14.50 Giuliana Ladomery: Legal codes in the international arbitration for sport: a diachronic analysis

15.10 Ulisse Belotti: Critical claims in Italian arbitration narratives

CERLIS - Centro di Ricerca sui Linguaggi Specialistici

- 15.30 Discussion
- 15.50 Coffee break
- 16.20 Larissa D'Angelo: Cybermediation: current problems and future perspectives.
- 16.40 Stefania Maci: Interdiscursivity in professional genres: voicing litigation within arbitration
- 17.00: Michele Sala: Linguistic and textual features of Italian commercial arbitration awards
- 17.20: Patrizia Anesa: Generic and linguistic indeterminacy in legal practice
- 17.35: Cristina Gatti: Re-solutions across domains of discourse. User-friendly modes for a (commercial) access to prescriptive texts
- 17.50: General discussion and round-up