Genealogies of Legal Vision

Edited by Peter Goodrich, Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University, USA and Valérie Hayaert, Fondation Bodmer, Geneva, Switzerland

Series: Discourses of Law

The growing interest in law and the visual has tended to focus in a somewhat lazy fashion upon film and law, rather than addressing the actual history of law's regimes of visual control. This book traces the complex lineage of the legal emblem and argues that the mens emblematica of the humanist lawyers was the inauguration of a visiocentric regime that continues in significant part into the present and multiple technologies of vision. Bringing together leading experts on the history of legal emblems, this collection provides a ground-breaking account of the long relationship between visibility, meaning and normativity.
