Spacing Law and Politics

The Constitution and Representation of the Juridical

Leif Dahlberg, Royal INstitute of Technology, Sweden

Series: Space, Materiality and the Normative

Examining the inherent spatiality of law, both theoretically and as social practice, this book presents a genealogical account of the emergence and the development of the juridical. In an analysis that stretches from ancient Greece, through late antiquity and early modern and modern Europe, and on to the contemporary courtroom, it considers legal and philosophical texts, artistic and literary works, as well as judicial practices, in order to elicit and document a series of critical moments in the history of juridical space.
