

Contents

Focus: Articulating the Body Politic: Intersections in Law, Culture, and Society

Ed. Matteo Nicolini

Matteo Nicolini, "Focus: Articulating the Body Politic: Intersections in Law, Culture, and Society"

Alessandra Cordiano, "The Sex of the Body Politic: Questioning the Legal Constraints on Genderism between Law and Literature"

Ian Ward, "Shelley's Mask"

Giuseppe Martinico, "An Uneasy Character: John Calhoun's Cameos in The Gorgeous Hussy and Amistad"

Giovanna Ligugnana, "Unrepresented and 'Circumlocuted' People: Public Institutions and Citizens in Dickens' Little Dorrit"

Daniel Fernández Cañueto, "Representative Government and Constitutional Reality. Spain between Literature and Political Thought"

Giacomo Delledonne, "House of Cards: Comparing the British and the American TV Series from a Constitutional Perspective"

Matteo Nicolini, "Turning Vanity Fair into The Cœlestial City: England's Legal Narratives of the Body Politic from Bunyan to Thackeray"

Research

Steven Howe, "Justice in Crisis? On the Popular Jurisprudence of Weimar Film"

Giulia Maria Olivato, "Is Dr. Frankenstein Still Alive? From Twix to Apple: Commercializing Monstrosity"

Andrew Majeske, "Women, Power & the Decline of the West: Richard Sherwin's Ethical Wisdom, Krzysztof Koslowski's Tricolor-Red, & Machiavelli's Mandragola"

Patrizia Anesa, "The Popularization of Environmental Rights in TED Talks"

Book Review

Giulia Maria Olivato
Emma Pratchett, Spacing (in) Diaspora