

Polemos 13.1 (2019)

Table of Contents

FOCUS

Annalisa Ciampi

The Power of Images through Law, Art and History

Gilad Ben-Nun

Victor's Justice? Cultural Transfer and Public Imagery from Nuremberg to The Hague

Annalisa Ciampi

Images and Customary International Law, or the Destruction/Construction of International Norms through Images

Paolo Coen

Moshe Safdie at Yad Vashem: Architecture, Politics, Identity

Sionaidh Douglas-Scott

Brexit, Boundaries and the Power of Images

Katarina Ristić

Freed by the Court: The Role of Images between Remembrance and Oblivion of War Crimes

Marcello Stella

Off Her Throne and Unarmed: the Humble, yet Noble Visage of Justice and Her Restless Servants

RESEARCH

Valentina Adami

The Pedagogical Value of Young-Adult Speculative Fiction: Teaching Environmental Justice through Julie Bertagna's Exodus

Angela Condello, Luke Mason

Make It New! The Redeeming Modernism of Law and the Collapsing of Its Polarities

Clotilde Pégrier

Law, Literature and Genocide: Rupert Bazambanza's Smile through the Tears

André Karam Trindade

Requiem for Ivan Ilyich: The Problem of Judicial Interpretation in Tolstoy's Literature

BOOK REVIEW

Daniela Carpi

Jeanne Gaakeer. Judging from Experience. Law, Praxis, Humanities.